

The Jordan Schnitzer Museum of Art at Portland State University

- One of the most vibrant and accessible urban university museums in the United States
- Occupying 7,500 square feet over two floors in Neuberger Hall at the heart of PSU's campus
- Offering free and accessible art experiences for all
- Featuring art by NW artists, faculty and students, and exhibitions by national and international artists
- Providing rich creative, educational and collaborative opportunities across disciplines
- Opening onto the South Park Blocks and SW Broadway
- Easy access to public transportation and to Portland's cultural corridor
- Designed by Hacker Architects and built by Fortis Construction

 JORDAN SCHNITZER
FAMILY FOUNDATION
jordanschnitzer.org

 Portland State
UNIVERSITY