MISSION:

The Jordan Schnitzer Family Foundation's mission is to share the extensive post-war prints and multiples in the collections with qualified museum through exhibitions and loans in order to further the appreciation of and education associated with the printmaking practice of the major artists of the late 20th and 21st century.

HISTORY:

Jordan D. Schnitzer grew up surrounded by art in his mother's Portland, Oregon art gallery. What began as an interest in his formative years became a passion in 1988 when he began collecting post-war prints and multiples in earnest. Attracted by the collaborative and egalitarian nature of printmaking, Jordan naturally developed a program to share the work from his personal and Family Foundation collections in 1997. What began as collegial partnerships with regional university museums has today expanded to an ambitious calendar of nationally touring exhibitions.

With almost 16,000 objects, the collection now features major holdings of some of the most important Post-War and Contemporary Black, Indigenous, and Artists of Color. Since 1995, Jordan has worked with curators and institutions across the country to organize over twenty-five major traveling exhibitions focused on BIPOC artists.

The Foundation publishes scholarly brochures, exhibition catalogs, and catalogue raisonnés in conjunction with exhibitions drawn from the collections. It also funds museum outreach and programming that furthers the mission of promoting education and engaging non-traditional audiences.
